

BCH Wards Tips
Primary Diagnoses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Eating disorders • Anovulatory uterine bleeding • Some primary care patients
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Table rounds. Intern fills out and presents eating disorder grid (will be reviewed first day) • Do NOT write notes daily, but are expected to examine patients daily and present thoughtful plans.

BCH Adolescent Clinic Tips
Goal Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Taking an effective social history • Addressing confidentiality • Discussing topics such as sex, contraception, substance use, and weight • Performing respectful genital exams • Strength-based approaches to management
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scheduled w/ same preceptor multiple times • Try to schedule patients for return visits w/ you
Resources Available	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental health • Psychopharm support • Nutrition • Resource specialist for social needs

BMC Adolescent Clinic Tips
Population	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 12-22 y/o • Primarily from Dorchester, Roxbury, Hyde Park, South Boston, and the South End • First point of medical contact for adolescents new to the United States • Primary languages spoken: English, Haitian Creole, Spanish, and Cape Verdean Creole
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scheduled w/ same preceptor multiple times • Try to schedule patients for return visits w/ you
Subspecialty Programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CATALYST (for adolescents and young adults w/ substance use) • Teen prenatal and Teen Tot programs (to serve young parents and their children) • CATCH (providing gender affirming care to youth of all ages) • Sexual assault follow-up clinic • Menstrual Disorders Clinic • Integrated behavioral health social workers, patient navigators, and a family planner.